REVIEW OF EDEXCEL GCSE MATHEMATICS LINEAR 1380

PAPER 4 CALCULATOR HIGHER TIER 5 MARCH 201

- We've been slowly reading Crais' bibliography, and now wish we had done so in order, as in this book, the same Lucy leading man (PI) Elvis Cole met in Voodoo River has now moved to be with Elvis in California. When Lucy's son Ben is abducted while Elvis is babysitting, and soon a threat is made regarding Elvis' past exploits long ago in Viet Nam, it mars their relationship to say the least. When Lucy's ex-husband Richard gets involved, with his own "security" forces and apparently unlimited resources, things get hairy in the hunt for the bad guys and the hoped for return of the kid. Before long, Elvis calls his buddy Joe Pike to ask for his help, and the plot is on. Frankly, we were disappointed in this tale. Elvis was in no way his usual wise-cracking self, and some stream of consciousness segments throughout, including a long foreword and afterword, were confusing and somehow hardly relevant. We also did not care for the many scene changes and shifts from the point-of-view of many different characters, so that the same scenes were sometimes replayed several times from each character's vantage point. It was almost like Crais was trying harder to write a screen-play than a crime novel. We also thought the otherwise straight-line plot was almost over-the-top violent compared to other entries in the series. While we thought Crais was destined to be a new favorite, now we're not too sure, as so far we're not as endeared to Cole and Pike as we thought we would be, and this particular story was not exactly up our alley. We'll give Crais and company one more try and then decide.

- Elvis Cole is taking care of 10 year old Ben Chenier while Ben's mother, Lucy, is out of town. Lucy and Elvis have been together for awhile and now Elvis is getting closer to Ben. Suddenly Ben is kidnapped from Elvis' home. There seems to be a connection between Elvis' Vietnam War years and the motive for the kidnapping. The flashbacks to Cole's experiences in Vietnam are absolutely riveting...a little reminiscent of Black Hawk Down, but even better. Joe Pike is back after suffering significant injuries eight months earlier. He is still not 100%. Will he be able to help Cole save

Ben? The ending is tension filled with non-stop action (took me half an hour after I finished the book to get my neck muscles to relax!). An excellent addition to the Elvis Cole series.
