REVIEW OF SMART FORTWO BUYERS GUIDE

- Captain Corelli's Mandolin is one of the best books that I've ever read. Bernieres created a wonderfully woven story of passion, history, politics which resulted in a clear sense of place and time. It made me laugh out loud in one chapter and shed tears in the next. The characters were well developed and more so in this book than in any other, I truly felt for them. However, I have to say that the ending was not of the same quality as the rest of the book. As I read it I felt as if he were trying to cram it in. This amounted to almost five decades being wedged in the last few chapters. All in all though, I would still highly recommend this book.

- I gotta say, I loved this book. Leaving all the school reviews behind of foreshadowing and such, I really could associate with all the main characters and see it through their eyes (except Simon, not much of a mystic myself). I could feel the power trip of Jack, speak the voice of reason of Piggy, know that it's gone too far like Ralph, and mindlessly follow the masses as a child. It's IMO, a real reflection of human nature. READ IT! As for the reading itself, kinda simplistic, but when talking about kids, shouldn't it be?
