REVIEW OF IPOD CLASSIC REPAIR GUIDE

- Vulgar, violent and tasteless. I regret wasting my time and money on this book. Jeffrey Deaver will not be included in my library.
- The non-stop action and drama of this absorbing novel demonstrate the remarkable courage of a special group of children and teachers, against all odds. The book is filled with in-your-face maniacal perpetrators, the bravery of local police, sheriffs, hostage rescue team members and hostage negotiators. Delightfully, it portrays the innermost thoughts and feelings of the hostage negotiator. The plot spins you through a roller coaster of emotions, mainly, the plight of the hostages but also of the synergy between the hostage negotiator and the most courageous woman of the group with her clear, yet surreptitious, conveyance of important details. Above all, it demonstrates the sheer bravery and strength of this group of young children and their teachers, who rise above their unique traits, to fill the reader's imagination with a richly detailed portrayal of good versus evil. I've been a fan of Jeffrey Deaver's books for quite some time, most notably his series of books that feature Lincoln Rhyme and Amanda Sachs. (First book: THE BONE COLLECTOR). While waiting for him to release a new book, I discovered A MAIDEN'S GRAVE at my local library and was completely thrilled with it.
