REVIEW OF ADVANCING VOCABULARY SKILLS 4TH EDITION ANSWERS CHAPTER 5

- I loved the other two books in this series and was truly looking forward to this book - I couldnt be more disappointed. I'm an avid reader - and this book was painful at times to read. Normally I would of just stopped - but out of curocity and loyalty I finished it. This story could of been told in half the pages. Some background and info is nice - but the detail was long winded and more often that not - repetitive. I swear I read the same descriptive paragraphs more than once. I got the description of the cave the first time - didnt need it over and over again. My greatest urge while reading this book was to get out a red marker and start crossing out passages. So if you dont mind scanning through the extra verbage to get to the meat of the story this is okay and minus a couple hundred pages it would of been great - oh well. Cant recommend it.

- I have readed this book over and over. Where is the story? Where is the plot? Did I miss something, or was it just not there? Did Jean realy write this book? Boy I hope not, because if she did after 10 years she has lost it. On the book cover it said " Jean Auel is at her very best in this superbly textured creation of prehistoric society." Sorry Ms Auel but you miss it by a mile. Better luck next time. Please take your time and go back and read your first book and try to get the magic back before you write #6.
