REVIEW OF IPCC TAX PAPER MAY 2013

- I first heard about Mr. Rogers a couple of years ago. A young lady named Nikki, from San Antonio, who is a member of my Diaspora2000@yahoo.com list, where we discuss white supremacy and all of its destructive ramifications on black people and on whites as well, mentioned some data that he had researched. I immediately went out and brought every book written by him that I could find. I finished "Superman" and am now reading the "Sex and Race" series. I'm also reading the "World's Great Black Men of Color". Even though I have lived all over the world and always moved comfortably in interracial groups, I am amazed at the knowledge presented here that it is totally new to me. If we would teach ALL CHILDREN this information from the beginning of their schooling forward, we probably wouldn't have so much hatred of blacks by white people. Whites probably wouldn't hate themselves so much either; because their brain computers would be programmed with correct information about the human races instead of the garbage it currently contains. The disasters we have suffered recently probably wouldn't have happened either if white people knew their true history and place on this planet. When people act with a head full of stereotypes and other misinformation about other people, these tragedies are sure to result.

- This is the only volume in The Sandman series that I actually had to force myself to finish. Although "Worlds' End" includes some foreshadowing to the far superior "The Kindly Ones", the story just doesn't seem to go anywhere. Needless to say, earlier volumes that focused on minor/supporting characters were far more successful.
