REVIEW OF GADGET N74 FEBRERO 2015 PDF HQ

- This work is a clear, concise and readable work on French organization, strategy, and tactics from the French Revolution to Waterloo. The book also covers the enemies of France during that time period. For such a small book, less than 300 pages, Rothenberg provides a wealth of information. I found myself repeatedly underlining passages in this book. A great reference to be used in any study of the epoch. Well worth the modest cost, highly recommended.
- I learn History with Bernard Cornwell's books that mix it with adventure, epic, romance and a remarkable character like Richard Sharpe. Brilliant.
