REVIEW OF BPP ACCA P3 STUDY TEXT 2014 SAGLIKORE

- Goni provides a very detailed account of post-war Argentina and its relationship with Germany. For a serious student of WW2, or its immediate aftermath, this would be a compelling read. For other, it may be too intense.

- A fine little book. Not in the same league as 'To Kill a Mockingbird', not as cerebrally satisfying as Flannery O'Connor, but very well-written and lovingly crafted. As I read, pleasant images from my own rural southern childhood kept intruding - not a criticism, but a commentary on the author's aptitude for capturing the south as it truly was before most of it became a suburb of Atlanta. This should appeal to all ages, and especially to anyone who enjoys watching Andy Griffith re-runs.
