REVIEW OF PTA TRAINERS GUIDE

- I would not normally review my own translation, but I have to correct the impression given in the review by A Customer: the novel is set on the edge of Cairo, not in India, and it reflects on the three Western monotheistic religions and not at all on those of India, China, etcetera. The first four heroes relive the lives of Adam, Moses, Jesus and Muhammad respectively, and the fifth hero represents modern science and technology. I give it only 4 stars, because the translation needed to be revised - and was, asChildren of Gebelaawi. However, it is a collector's item as only 6,000 copies were published by Henemann Educational Books and 2,000 by Three Continents Press.

- This fills in my "library" very well. I am trying to put together a movie script and the ideas by Viki King are helping me on the way. Each book has its own slant on how to write the great Oscar winner and this one includes some really good "posers" to help get through writers block. Now I just have to get up off my duff and complete my script. Wish the book could do the typing....
