REVIEW OF BENJAMIN FRANKLIN AN AMERICAN LIFE WALTER ISAACSON

- This novel is the first in a line of many for Stuart Woods. His characters move from novel to novel and you follow them through the course of their lives. In this as in all of his books a reader can see the depth he goes to in his research be it law, police procedures, medical, etc. Stuart Woods novels are hard to put down once you begin reading. I own all of his books with the exception of one and eagerly await the next.

- This book gives ou a nice overview of the region for visiting HK, Guangzhou and Macau.
