REVIEW OF RTA GRANDE PUNTO

- I have a MFA in acting from the University of Central Florida, and I teach acting at Christian Brothers University in Memphis Tennessee. I studied with Larry Silverberg for two summers. He is as remarkable a teacher as he is a writer. Even though one might think it is extremely difficult to explain the Meisner technique in a book, Larry has accomplished that. Like many, I believe you need to study acting in a class to learn the craft, but these series of books are a rare exception. Not only do they teach the technique using a step by step process which allows the actor to really understand what s/he is doing, but they reveal the essence of the Meisner approach which is to specify a role until it has ULTIMATE MEANING for YOU! Also, if you didn't know by now from reading the other reviews, "Meisner gave Larry and Smith & Kraus" written permission to publish these books.

- I foget to write in it, it's prob my own issue, but there is no ongoing reading so I basically read the intro, wrote in it a couple of days and forgot about it...
