- If you already have a collection of the classic cannabis books for a solid foundation and are just looking to get another book to add on your shelf, then get this book too; otherwise, go to www.overgrow.com where you'll learn much more from true growers than this book contains. Being a true connoisseur and grower, I'd have to say that this book is not all it's cracked up to be: more hype and far too much self-promotion going on here for my taste buds.

- "How will we sing the Lord's song in a strange land?" cries the Psalmist. Robert Duncan was an orphan, a modernist and lyricist. With HD and her contemporaries, he sang in a deep and devout voice from the American wilderness. No "selected" collection does any poet justice, and Duncan is best read complete. But this volume contains favorites and is large enough to cover both the holy and secular grounds that Duncan mapped. As always, read inwardly and aloud. You will find wonder and treasure here.
