REVIEW OF MAKOMO RESOURCES ENERGY FOR LIFE

- Although this is fiction, it is an interesting way to present what the Bible says about Ahaz and Hezekiah. This book follows Hezekiah from childhood. It is so intriguing. I loved every page. Lynn Austin brings the characters in the Bible alive and makes them so real. I found myself searching the scripture to see what the Bible actually says about what happens during this time. As soon as I finished the book I was downloading the next one in the series. I totally recommend this book. It is a terrific read!

- I was expecting something similar to Office 2000 Resource Kit, a very good resource. but instead this book is not at all helpful for anyone who has never installed a server product before or been exposed to network issue decisions. Luckily I come from a Unix/Linux background and could understand the jargon and over emphasized subjects covered in this book. Active Directory is nothing more then an overblown address book (however, it is most useful) it's coverage is overdone in my opinion. Save your money and use the Server help documentation that comes with the product.
