REVIEW OF THE BASIC OXFORD PICTURE DICTIONARY SECOND EDITION MONOLINGUAL ENGLISH

- An effectively creepy and believable portrait of a rage-driven serial killer. Quite unlike the famous (and excellent) movie based on the book, both in plot and in mood.
- This is a little silly story about a man who has a rather humorous betting habit and focuses on the account of some bets he placed with a highly talented jumping-frog that he owned. The story is not half bad and I understand that it became quite popular and was one of the first writings to bring Twain into the limelight. Even so, I do not feel that story

- short as it is - stands the test of time as do other writings of Mark Twain. Don't be fooled though, the story is a nice quick and light read, especially if you want to divert your attention from the lull of boredom or any other times of inactivity.
