REVIEW OF 101 ITINERARI DA FARE IN MOTOCICLETTA ALMENO UNA VOLTA NELLA VITA FILE TYPE PDF

- With hundreds of versions of The Cherry Orchard available, you would think that Amazon would have the sense to name the translator. I think this is the same version used by LA Theater Works in which case the translator would be Michael Frayn.
- The book starts out pretty good. The idea of political wrangling in the Vatican is kind of interesting, whether or not it actually works that way in real life. And the idea of there being a missing piece to the Third Secret of Fatima makes for an interesting plot device. However, in the end that's all it is. The Secret, when finally revealed, didn't seem to warrant all the troubles that it supposedly caused. I was left wondering... if that's the big Secret, why bother trying to hide it? It would be much easier to just reveal it and renounce it as a fraud. Afterall, only devout Catholics believe in Marian apparitions to begin with, and wouldn't such people be quick to accept the Church's judgement if they said it wasn't genuine? Therefore, the whole premise of the plot was sort of spoiled for me. For this, I take off one star. To make matters worse, the book describes a whole series of unbelievable (or at least highly unlikely) events. Also, characters in the book (including the hero) do things that seem very out of character. The overall effect is that it becomes very difficult to suspend one's disbelief. So, I have to take off another star. I still found the book interesting. However, I think it could have been better.
