REVIEW OF MEMEK IBU HAMIL CEWEK BUGIL

• This book called "The Hobbit", is about a little ordinary Hobbit called Bilbo Baggins, who had an unexpected adventure. This adventure was filled with lost treasure, magical dwarves, mystical elves and fearsome dragons. Here, is Professor Tolkiens first book that takes place in Middle-Earth. Just the fact that such a small and "un-adventurous" little person like Mr.Baggins going on an adventure made this book a great page-turner. But with the addition of magical creatures, fierce warriors and Smaug the Dragon, I believe that this book should be recognized in the "Authors hall of Fame".The detail in this book was magnificent, letting you picture the lush environment of Rivendell, the harsh, cold Mountain range of the Misty Mountains and the dark forest of Mirkwood, with its hidden eyes of darkness and spiders the size of elephants. The characters had complex personalities, family tree descriptions, and their appearances were, in my opinion, described perfectly.Smaug, the dragon who guarded the dwarves' treasure, was quite a funny character. Not comically funny, but in the way that he talks to burglars, and the nasty habit of exploding with fury, when so much as a single coin is missing from his stockpile of gold. All in all, this book was a work of literary art, and descriptive genius. On a scale of one to ten, I would give it a ten and a half, and I believe it is suitable for all ages. If you are looking for a great book, you should consider "The Hobbit".Written by:TheCarrot.net editor, nick

• I think I have read "The Hobbit" three times and enjoyed every page this fourth time. Each time I read little details that I missed before. My grandson was reading the book from school and when he left I needed more of the hobbit tale so downloaded it from Amazon.com to my Kindle. In just seconds, I was reading. Great story!
