REVIEW OF NFPA FIRE PROTECTION HANDBOOK 20TH EDITION

- These little books are awesome. I love the classics, but collect these for the decorative aspect as well. They come in nice colors with interesting petite patterns. They are great to stack flat on a shelf with a small bud vase (or the like) on top.
- Jane Eyre, is my hands-down favorite novel. Breathtaking in scope, Charlotte Bronte wrote a novel that is gothically romantic (given the popular style of the day), a commentary on Victorian England social mores, and of forbidden love...breaking the barrier between class. Jane was a feminist, controlling her fate, her life, despite whatever constraints (other people, social, financial) she encountered. Anyone who believes in the dismantling of the welfare state, should read this novel (and Charles Dickens for that matter) to get a better idea of the reality of a world in which "unfortunates" are dependent upon the random kindness and/or charity of others.
