REVIEW OF AP BIOLOGY FRQ ANSWERS

- This audio tape is the standard on The Greatest Russian Peter the Great was a giant. He embodied all that was Russia and aspired too many of the things Russia would later become. As a young man he had learned much about Russia's long and storied history. As Tsar he embarked on unrelenting campaigns against all of Russia's neighbors and forged a modern empire. Massie's Biography of this seminal leader is the standard on the subject. It explored every facet of Peter's long life; his relations with family, his military genius, his ambitions, his fears, his obsessions and his weaknesses. Successive chapters detail the Northern war, the Wars with the Ottomans, the wars in Europe proper, and the final campaign along the coast of the Caspian. In his life Peter `Piervui' redeemed the Russians at the battle of Poltava and thus set the foundations for the building of Peters `window on Europe', the city on the Neva named after his saint, St. Petersburg. The brilliant writer, Massie, delivers a tour de force in describing the building of Peter's northern capital. Massie also looks into the dual personality of Peter, his obsession with Europe and his own inward struggles with his weak son. Massie examines relations with both the Ottoman east and the European West. Peter in his life looked forward to a vast Russian empire, one that would one day stretch the length of the continent and on which the `sun would never set'. Peter dreamed of a world class navy operating from the Baltic to the Mediterranean. He dreamed of liberating the Christians of the Caucasus and Balkans and saw a role for Russia in Europe, all dreams that would be realized by successors like Catherine the Great. A brilliant book, an epic of detail and flavor!

- The fifth volume in the series proves to be a welcomed addition and the whole pack forms an unbeatable bundle that is complete and updated on a regular basis. This is something that should not miss out of any office that has anything to do with music, because the things you read and the people and companies indexed here are not to be found anywhere else
