REVIEW OF PERSONAL FINANCE CHAPTER 8 ANSWERS

- I came into this book not having read any of the authors before and I had very little background knowledge of any of the series attached to this collection. That said....The Countess's Pleasure was....okay. I never really got invested in the story and when it was over it didn't leave me wanting to look up any of the author's other works.The Breed Next Door was one of the two best in this collection. It left me wanting to read the series that this is a stand alone to. Lyra made me smile and laugh at loud at times. The way Lyra and Tarek enjoyed provoking each other was fun to watch without being over the top. It was fun and I can't wait to read more stories set in this world.Falling for Anthony fell short of interesting. Mixing angel-like gurdians and vampires it left me feeling nothing at all.The Blood Kiss was the second of the two best stories. Julianna is the blood daughter of the Eduard, an old world ruling vampire who just happens to be holding Roman's younger brother hostage. No a wise idea when Roman is the werewolf's King. After Julianna helps Roman free his brother he takes the opprotunity to snatch Julianna. Eduard assumes Julianna betrayed him and declares her to be Blood Prize, an old world law that is just as horrendous as it sounds. It left me wanting to read more but not unsatisfied.

- This book is amust for every student or teacher. It is much better than I anticipated. The illustrations are also wonderful.
