REVIEW OF STARLIGHT CHORDS BY MUSE ULTIMATE GUITAR COM

- I am appalled that such a wonderful, helpful and amusing book isn't available. I'm going to have to give MY well preserved copy to a family friend who's graduating from college. Except for a few sections, the advice is timeless.
- I found this "novel" to be one of the poorest I have read to date. The characters are not developed, the story line was weak and it lacked imagination. It seemed as if Mr. Patterson stopped by a bar one night and jotted it down on a napkin! It should have been labeled as no more than a short story. I believe the last time I read a book with such a large font, two inch margin on all four sides and less than 200 words per page ---- I was in the third grade!! New chapters were used as a way of extending the story/number of pages --- they were not used as a means to express a new idea or thought. Take my advice -- do not waste your time or money.
