- this book was really great. i liked it because boba fett is in it and he has a big part in the book. i also liked it because it reminded me of event horizon the movie. i hope you read this really good book.
- INHERIT THE WIND does an excellent job of presenting some accounting of the actual Scopes trial, of the intellectual and political competition between two great men, of rural life in the 1920's Bible Belt, and of some semblance of the science versus religion debate. However, a more philosophical view could be that the story depicts the dangers of fanaticism in any area of society. The story makes the reader realize that an open mind is the true corridor to progression. Likewise, a mind so narrow and closed that it does not allow for change in either natural law or human law, is a mind that is self-destructive and a potential threat to all others influenced by it. Thus, the Reverend and Mr. Brady lost their followings and indeed, themselves, because of their religious fanaticism.
