This is a must have item for any Craven or 'Scream' fan - It is as intense as the movie, but still has a slighter edge thanks to Kevin Williamson's character and scene descriptions. It was just as riveting, just as chilling and is equal to the movie. I had memorized the entire novel in a few days and was constantly reading it. It's like saying 'Well I can't see the movie now, I'm in school, (work, church, bathroom, etc.) so I'll do the next best thing - read the screenplay!' and you will because it isn't too long and can be read in less than an hour, plus it has pictures from the movie and pictures from the sequel. Kevin's introduction really gives you a insight to what made him make this screenplay, from how he came to know horror, and what eventful night gave him the ideas for the story. All in all, a very handy thing to have in your backpack, (briefcase, over your bible, medicine chest, etc.).
