REVIEW OF THE MOTIVATION TO WORK BY FREDERICK HERZBERG BERNARD

- It was very good. It was very descriptive and i really couldn't put it down. It made me feel like a wolf sort of. The way that the wolves are such a tight nit group is amazing, especially how well they work together. All the problems in this book are very realistic, like rabies and lack of food and such. I recommend this book to anyone.
- Oh, how did I not find this book until now?I'll give the very FEW downfalls, first.It felt rushed towards the end, and I feel some of the most key events should undoubtedly been elaborated.Next,

WHY?? (is this not a movie YET??)Incredibly moving, life changing.The characters are so very well fleshed out, the smells, sounds, sights... were all so very REAL, I not only could see, smell, hear it all happening, most often it felt even deeper than that!! I felt like I knew the characters more than myself.A perfect blend of tragedy, transcendence, wonder, mystical beauty, a bit of wit, and life changing philosophical prose.DO NOT~ pass this book up.
