REVIEW OF JUDY MOODY Y LA VUELTA AL MUNDO EN OCHO DIAS Y MEDIO

- What might have been a decent book, was all killed in the end. I am not sure how anyone gave this book 5 stars. It does not seem like a completed book at all, the ending completely left you hanging. I thought at first that it was the first set in a trilogy, only to find out that the subsequent books are not actual follow-up books but rather books with separate characters, plots and societies. How disappointing! Its like the author got bored with writing the book and decided to just end it. Save yourself some time and skip this book.

- The book is written in an easy language but we are sure that the content is not easy to understand for children. The ending is a bit unsatisfactory, but all in all it is fun to read the story because living in such a community is very hard to imagine. So you have to use your imagination.
