REVIEW OF SWAHILI VERBS AND GRAMMAR ESSENTIALS SWAHILI EDITION

- This is a wonderful unique story for children aged 13 to 103. While the principal characters are mainly animal, it is in a different style to Watership Down or Duncton Wood. The setting is medieval France, and the principal plot revolves around the domesticated Plantagenet and his efforts to help the wild animals of the forest survive an attempt by the local lord and his farmers to exterminate them. The pig Plantagenet has to overcome many obstacles, including his fear of the forest wolves, and his local enemy, the farmer's dog. Plantagenet grows throughout the story, to a satisfying conclusion. This book is probably difficult to obtain, unless it is reprinted sometime, but if you have a chance to buy a copy do not hesitate. I have been regularly re-reading it for some 20 years now.

- TAKE A LOOK AT THE 5 STAR REVIEWS. MOST OF THEM ARE WRITTEN BY "A CUSTOMER". SHADY!! CLEARLY WRITTEN BY THE AUTHOR TO BOOST SALES. COME ON MAN!! WHY NOT ACTUALLY WRITE A GOOD AND USEFUL BOOK INSTEAD?
