REVIEW OF THE DC COMICS GUIDE TO INKING

- Technically, the writing style is very poor. If this was "ghosted," Victoria should get a refund. But, basically - what you've heard on the street about this book is more or less true. For a child that wasn't around all that much, she is writing more from other sources. I hardly expected an unbiased opinion from the child of a broken home, but some of the none-too-subtle suggestions that Vincent was 'bi' and so on - without any factual evidence, only gossip - not to mention WHO CARES - is just too much. Another instance of licking one's emotional wounds in public, I'm afraid. Stick to the marvelous Lucy Chase Williams book, and the interesting recent book put out by Midnight Marquee.

- I just got a Kindle for Christmas. I started to look through the e kindle books and came upon Sherrilyn Kenyon's books now I was never the type for vampires and all and romance books that just was not me. When I saw it was somewhat based on Mythology that grabbed me. The first book I read was Night Pleasures that hooked me. I have read, Seize the Night, Night Embrace, and Fantasy Lover. I just got done reading Night Play I loved it so far it is my favorite. Vane and Birde are meant to be together. I loved how it did not matter how Birde looked to Vane he loved her anyway.
