REVIEW OF BOOK DIARY OF A ZULU GIRL GOES TO JHB CHAPTER 6 PDF EPUB

- I eagerly waited for Ms. Auel's fifth installment in the series and went out and bought the book pretty much immediately after it was out. I have a mixed opinions about the book. On the one hand, Jean Auel's characters are still very likeable, and it is great to finally meet the Zeladonii, who did not disappoint. On the other hand, I feel that Ms. Auel's has overused the same theme for the past four novels. Ayla meets new people; most like her; some don't; then something miraculous happens to convert those people, etc. This is now getting a little tedious. I am still hoping that the next novel will be entirely different, but that it won't take ten years.

- I loved her first novel, this one definitely pleases, in her typical style of amazing descriptions Jean Auel is right on the money describing the environment, plants and animals available at the time in pre-historic ice age Europe. Enjoy!
