REVIEW OF COMPTIA SECURITY STUDY GUIDE EXAM SY0 501 7TH EDITION PDF

- 11-year-old Jonas lives in the community of Sameness with his family unit: his mother, his father, and his little sister, Lily. One day he notices an apple change; but a second later, it is normal again. Soon he begins to see many things changing. A few days later, his father comes home with a newchild. He said the newchild was behind the other newchildren, and unless he could catch up he would have to be released. Jonas was feeling apprehensive. The Ceremony of Twelve was just a few days away, and he was wondering what assignment the Elders would choose for him; none seemed right. Finally he received his assignment - Receiver. What will Jonas do as Receiver? What will happen to the newchild? Find out in Lois Lowry's The Giver.

- Lois Lowry's novel, The Giver, plants readers inside a utopian (or dystopian?) society that is difficult to comprehend. Jonas's job as Receiver of Memories shows the young man everything his community has given up in order to be free from pain and differences. Realizing that so much joy was sacrificed along with the pain, Jonas and the Giver of Memories collaborate to bring real emotions back to the community. This book really made me grateful that I have agency and can make my own decisions, and it also made me thankful for real feelings of happiness -- things we really take for granted.
