REVIEW OF LE MIE MIGLIORI RICETTE GIALLOZAFFERA NO

- I keep my copy next to my tv-guide, that way I can look for the nit picks! Actually it is a good book, but it does tend to distract you from the episode.
- A conservative friend loaned me this book and I agreed to read it. Page after page, I was left speechless. For a while I tried to sputter out a rebuttal but I finally had to stop trying. It was great to finally admit that all this "do-gooding" is bad for everyone. I can finally stop working to deny poor children a better education through voucher programs. All this time I was smug and I thought I knew what was best for other people. This author explains in her confident way what is really best for other people and how I was wrong. She picks great examples of famous liberals saying stupid things and then tears those quotes apart. Too bad for us liberals that those were our best and only arguments. That was all we had. Dang.
