REVIEW OF MODERN WORLD HISTORY CHAPTER 14 SUMMARY

- I didn't like Alan Houghurst's previous books very much, even though they're classics, but I loved this one. It's got a very fascinating and glamorous setting (high society London, world of politics and movies), and the main character is very appealing even though he's flawed. If you like novels that are smart AND move along quickly with plot AND have beautiful sentences, you cannot do wrong with this one. Well deserved the Booker Prize.
- This book is exceptional and extraordinary in every regard. It is some of the best writing I've read. Beautiful, insightful, whimsical, charming, poignant. Allow time for the book to creep into your consciousness, for you to settle into its pace. Once you do, you will be delighted.
