REVIEW OF 7 MARINE AND COASTAL ORNITHOLOGY PHC

- Yea! I love this book I could read it over and over! I just think Emma is just such a strong woman and the whole book has this underlying witt that I just get a real kick out of..... hmmm, I think I'll read it again, now. :
- Though exhasperating at times, Emma enchants us all. It is through Emma's repeated blunders, imprudence, and vanity that she becomes one of the most charming heroines of all times. Jane Austen has created a hilarious set of characters: the preposterously overprotective father, the poor chatterbox neighbour, the pretty, lighthearted protegé, and the man of reason whose love finally dictates against his logic (to name a very few). Although the plot is at times made dreary by Miss Bates' prolonged monologues, the novel is otherwise a light read. One must not expect to turn the last page having learnt some universal truth, but rather having enjoyed a few good laughs, some heart-leaping, and a few sighs. Emma is an outstanding proof of Jane Austen's wit; the candour and modesty in her novel make it a truly refreshing read.
