REVIEW OF GRAMMAR EXPRESS INTERMEDIATE WITH ANSWER KEY FREE

- Comparing this book solely with King's own works, I'd say this one rates about a C+. Not even close to the sweeping intensity of his most powerful books like "The Stand" or the heart-wrenching emotionality of "Bag of Bones," "Dreamcatcher" is still a worthy read. While disjointed and unfocused at times, it is still stunningly paced as only King's works can be. Yes, it feels hurried and a bit self-indulgent, but even at his laziest Stephen King's raw talent gives this book enough to sustain it and make it better than 99.99% of what passes for horror or dark fantasy on the literary market.

- After 30 years of writing, I guess Stephen's ideas are gone? "Hole in the Wall?" What is this... Sound's like Stephen wants to write westerns now! For a fresh taste in modern horror, I would suggest the new author Mark Ventimiglia. Mark is possibly the BEST KEPT SECRET OF MODERN HORROR FICTION! His imagination is gripping and his imagery, vivid! There are many stories in his book (THE RESIDENCE) that defy reality! There is a tale of a ring that eats its owners fingers; a story about a house that is possessed by a spirit of cockroaches and it makes a father whig out and slaughter his family using only sandpaper and a wire brush, there is an awesome Lovecraftian type of tale that vividly shows an innsmouth transformation, and a story about a declawed housecat that extracts vengence on its owner for declawing her. There are many other stories here too, and some poetry, as well as cool art work. What this author was thinking when he wrote these pieces is anyones guess! FANTASTIC!
