REVIEW OF CROWDFUNDING THE NEXT BIG THING

- Mr. Popper's Penguins is an easy read for a twelve-year old boy, and I found it enjoyable. It wasn't necessarily suspenseful, but each chapter ended with a problem that needed to be solved. This book would be great to use for a book report. The characters in the story are well developed and can be compared and contrasted. It would also be a great read-aloud for little children because of the silliness in it.

- If you can stand really really really bad writing ("He swayed with every turn, his spine absorbing each anomaly the road's surface had to offer"), the story is okay.
