- Ganga Karmokar's book From Hell to Heaven is an invaluable book for anyone on a spiritual path, but without doubt a crucial read and continual guide for one actually going through a Kundalini Awakening. I am in the midst of an Awakening and have kept the book at my side continually. It has become my working manual, one in which I can make notes and continue to reread as the process unfolds. Everytime I reread passages I find that I come to a deeper and even richer understanding of this sacred path. The book comprehensively describes what the process is, and the tools and directions for forward movement and balance through the process. It also has Question and Answer sections with Ganga answering myriads of relevant questions that have answered many of my own questions along the way. I have the great fortune of knowing Ganga personally and being her student. She enabled me to understand what was happening to me, and was tireless in her guidance and continues to be as well as her book. She is totally dedicated to helping others through this process as well as on other spiritual paths. It is important for one to have the steering guidance of one who has successfully forged through this amazing and difficult process to Self-Realization such as Ganga Karmokar has!
