REVIEW OF ENGINEERING DRAWING BASANT AGRAWAL GOOGLE BOOKS

- I love the Warriors series. I have every book in my personal library. but the books take patience. Its mostly the same thing over and over agin. They eat hunt and sleep. everyonce and a while they will throw something incredible that you wouldnt expect though. It makes up for all the boring chapters they normaly have. by they i mean the the Erin Hunters. Four peple write these books.

- I started the Warriors Series. Here's my review of "Into the Wild". (No Spoilers Included)The open-ended one sentence summary: A "kittypet" named Rusty is taken into the ThunderClan, one of four cat Clans who live in the wild.Content Inappropriate for All Ages: Violence. Lots and lots of violence.Characters: 5 of 5 StarClans. Rusty is the main focus of this book, and he seems a little bland occasionally, but otherwise good. You can easily care about Yellowfang and Spottedleaf, and the other characters are well-developed as well.Plot: 4 of 5 StarClans. Obviously designed to leave you wanting to read the other five books and: it works. Lots of suspense, and loose ends left over. I enjoyed reading about the cats' Warrior Code, rituals, and mythology, which wasn't too hard to keep up with. I didn't catch any plot holes, but I doubt the series will ever be considered fine literature.Impact: 4 of 5 StarClans. It was a good, suspenseful drama, you care about the characters, and you wonder what's going to happen next. There was a big shock at the end that I'm still not over. Leaves you wanting more, and this one doesn't torture you if you don't decide to read the next one. But if you do...All in all, 4 of 5 StarClans.PS. I'm already done with Book 4 now!
