REVIEW OF PEARSON EDUCATION 4TH GRADE MATH INVESTIGATIONS

- A friend gave me this book for my birthday, and though I wouldn't tell my friend this, I found this novel dull. It's too bad that this writer felt it necessary to take a small story about one young woman's (Maya's) bad relationship choices and draw questionable parallels with political strife in Israel. The plotline that follows the lives of three women seemed to fall back on Israeli "types" of women rather well drawn characters. As one who's quite familiar with Israeli political history, I felt this to be a misguided attempt.

- I got this little book for my kindle and I was totally surprised at how many really good recipes it has in it. I don't usually make Mexican food at home because I want to enjoy it more when I eat out but my Mexican food buddies have moved away and I don't go out to eat much so I have learned how to make tortillas and this little book just fits the bill perfectly.
