REVIEW OF EMPIRICAL METHODS MIT

- I originally bought this book and the following books used. At the time, I had never read anything by Margaret Weis, so I was kinda silly in buying four books I knew nothing about other than someone at sometime had referred the writing style to Star Wars. I was (and still am) a rabid Star Wars fanatic and had just gotten money for my birthday, so four books at half cover price didn't make much of a dent in my budget. On the way home, with my parents talking and driving, I jumped into the first, The Lost King. I made it as far as page 187 and was so lost I wasn't even sure when we got home. The Star of the Guardian series sat on my book shelf for nearly six years. I always reminded myself that I was going to go back and read them. I reminded myself through my parents' divorce and my mother's remarriage. Finally, for an assignment in Speech class, my sophomore year of High School, we were required to get a book and read it during class when our teacher was correcting our Vocab. I had finished all the

- We used this book in a small group study of all women and I have to say it was an intense study. I would recommend this book to anyone.
