REVIEW OF FIT GIRL GUIDE COUPON CODE

- This is the first of Steve Berry's books that I've read. I liked it so much that I bought all the novels by him that I could lay my hands on (from my favorite local used books store). It is action packed and well researched. I admit that the conclusion of the book seems a bit far fetched. His depiction of the Vatican's intrigues do not seem very far from the truth though (except perhaps for the murder parts). It is the kind of novel that I find perfect to relax at the end of the day or on vacation.
- This book is extremely useful for anyone who wants to learn Yiddish. It is filled with just about every phrase you could possibly think of, and even has an index of every single word in the whole book, which comes in very useful. It has not only phrases, but also lots of popular single words (such as east, west, good, bad, etc.). One thing that I really liked about it is that it uses the Yiddish alphabet, instead of that stupid romanization that you see in every other modern Yiddish book. For people who can't read the Yiddish alphabet, it has a very nice guide to all of the sounds and names of the Yiddish letters. It unfortunately doesn't contain a thing about grammar or gender of nouns or using verbs, but just the same, this book is extremely useful for the Yiddish learner. I personally find for it's low cost. I think that it is the best would recommend it to book that you will ever anyone of any age that wants to learn Yiddish.
