REVIEW OF SPARK OF LIFE A NOVEL RESISTANCE ERICH MARIA REMARQUE

- Our Christian book club read this book from the "classics" genre. Although I have enjoyed many classics, it's rare for me to read a book written in the 19th c. or prior that I would consider a "page turner." This is a suspenseful, can't put it down book comparable to those written by many of our best adventure novelists of today. Great book!!
- If you're going to read The Count of Monte Cristo you must read the unabridged version. I just loved this story and found the book not long enough. A great story the needs 1000 pages to be told correctly.
