REVIEW OF BELLA DURMIENTE LA FANTASIA

- Come on, Ms. Cornwell, lighten up! Black Notice was a splendid yarn about a Werewolf but so many sub-plots were thrown in, the character-development and his origins were buried. I have always loved big, brusque, protective Marino but in this one his disgusting behavior was a real turn-off. He typified the "ugly American" when they were in France. And where was your usual grand and glorious ending tying in all the loose ends? This one seemed to just abruptly stop.From the description of the killer, with his long body hair, ugly face and pointy teeth, it was completely illogical that SOMEONE didn't spot him long before the end.

- You can't ask for more out of a software manual than this book gives. Easy to follow, as a reference or a start-to-finish guide, and amusing at times. I would highly recommend this book for any novice or experienced Dreamweaver user.
