REVIEW OF CREATING AMERICA CHAPTER 13

- I loved her moods and her relationships. She is todays woman. In this book she lets you inside and feel her pain and the way she cares about people in pain. Her buddy the cop is a real hoot. What a guy, we should all be so lucky to have a bud like him. Lucy, is a little scarey she seems like she is going around the bend. The mystery is a really good one and the outcome, well I guess you could say it was worth the read. You go girl, your my favorite. Cathi Martin

- Black Notice had to be one of the most unpleasant books that I have ever read. I enjoyed the earlier books in this series - they were well written and researched, and Kay Scarpetta was edgy in an interesting sort of way. Unfortunately, she has devolved into a narcissistic, paranoid shrew with delusions of grandeur, and her sidekicks, especially Marino, are equally self-involved and obnoxious. The books are not particularly well written anymore - Cornwell seems to be grinding them out with no editorial guidance. At least she seems to have gotten over her gun fetish, but these books have become nasty and meanspirited, with little to recommend them.
