REVIEW OF EU ACADEMY 2015 ANNUAL REPORT INTERPAPER

- A success on many levels this is by far the best of Duras. A novel that tackles the ways and wheres of our self construction and the role of memory and event in relation to each other...how do we use one relationship in our life to express our feelings about other unresolved relationships (here I am referring to the protagonist's position in her family and society). Where do we find ourselves, can we find ourselves...and what is the role of stories/authors and the memories that all of us carry with us.

- This book's cover says it all: when two type-A personalities meet, sparks fly! These characters were so real they could have been people I knew. Andrea is feisty and refuses to be bested by Ian, no matter how sexy and good-looking he is! And the story is crazy and cute. Well worth the small price tag. If you like boy-meets-girl comedies, I recommend this book for a few hours of fabulous fun. I'll be looking to see what else Donna Fasano wrote. Enjoy!
