REVIEW OF

CODING INTERVIEW IN JAVA PROGRAMCREEK

- When I was 8 I peeped on my aunt breastfeeding through an open doorhole from which the knob had been removed. I blew into the hole to clear out some of the wood shavings, upon which a shard flew into my eye. This is how I feel about reading this book. I got what I deserved for being a voyeur and reading erotica on the sly. Just when you get lulled in by the good prose style of Anais Nin she stabs you in the eye. If erotica is supposed to give you the jollies, here is where I cringed: 1. Incest (with both sexes) 2.

Pedophilia3. Female genital mutilationAll of these were involuntary acts of sex where a clearly stronger aggressor victimizes a weaker party, and sometimes a combination of these, and I'd only gotten through the first three stories!The worst part is I read before I sleep and I had a dream about a homosexual pedophile shortly after reading that story. I thought this would be a fun read but I kind of feel like the old Europe feel isn't all that sexy to me: Hungarians, Parisians in old Lima, that sort of thing. But Anais Nin writes well, so this review doesn't get 1 star.

- she is such a good author. loved this one had to go buy more by her.
