REVIEW OF PSYCHOLOGIE DE LA FEMME AMOUREUSE PDF

- Martha Grimes returns to us her 12 year old narrator, Emma, and Emma's friend the Sheriff, along with a cast of characters at the old hotel where Emma's mother cooks. Over the nearly four hundred pages of the novel, Emma's company wears a little thin. She is a fully realized character, but with all the limitations of her age; her passionate likes and dislikes loom large in the story--and frankly, they are predictable to the point of being cliched. The mystery slowly, oh so slowly, unravels. This tale could have been told more cleanly and concisely in half the time. Martha Grimes is apparently very fond of her fictional creation, young Emma, but her adult readers may yearn for a return to a more mature narrator, or at least to a child who is more seasoned and prescient.

- This is an wonderful book but the mystery is -confusing- and never ends. However, it's an wonderful story of trouble making,

Emma, who make drinks to get infomation from the old lady, and she steals it from the snotty waitress' stash!Hilorous!
