REVIEW OF TEACHING JOB INTERVIEW QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

- My first read of this book must have been ten years ago. I have reread it five times since, enjoying it more and more with each read. I agree with others that this is a masterpiece demanding to be reissued and garner the awards it deserves. The characters, especially Maggie, are rich, multi-faceted, and extremely memorable. I have stayed up with this book reading until the wee hours many a night. I only regret that the story ends and Maggie dies. I keep this book with five other favorite books of all time and reread it once a year. I also regret that this book is almost impossible to find in bookstores. Why this is the case I'll never understand.

- Unbeknownst to Bob Qualls, one cannot be "overemotional" over 'Titanic'. God knows that Hollywood slime James Cameron isn't. This book is provocative, accurate and poetic. Compare evidence with Ballard and Lord.
