REVIEW OF INJECTOR HEIGHT DETROIT SERIES 60 PDF FORMAT

• Patricia Cornwell's Black Notice is a fast-paced thriller for all but the last two chapters... then she ends the book very much like her last two books -- very neatly and VERY quickly. I don't understand what the rush is to have the book conclude so quickly and what about some imagination in the ending, please! Other than the last two chapters, this is vintage Scarpetta -- lots of forensic medicine that makes you feel like you're in the autopsy suite with her, lots of scares and of course, lots of lip from Marino! This book is much stronger than her last one, Point of Origin, which made Scarpetta into a WonderWoman(is there anything that she CAN'T do?!?) One other criticism is that Lucy is becoming a wacko and in some serious need of psychotherapy before she shoots everyone!

• It's pretty easy to describe my feelings about this book:"It's terrible - don't bother - I will never buy another book from this book series - the end has come."I used to love reading Patricia Cornwell's books. Oh well, it must be hard to keep the characters and plot lines fresh for such a long time.I'll have to find another author to replace this one.
