REVIEW OF INTERNATIONAL DT466 ENGINE MANUAL

- The chilling story as told by detective Bugliosi will scare and shock you to your utmost. There is an eerie sense all about you that keeps you wondering how such diabolical people could exist in this world. In all its gorey details and brutally honest depiction of the Manson "Family" Bugliosi does not shield the reader from the horrid acts committed. He is forthright in his personal feelings toward the murders and his perception of the Manson "Family" including their theology that "Helter Skelter", the final war between the blacks and the whites, is the most outrageous in all of history, which made everything in connection to the murders just as strange.

- The recipes in this cookbook are good, but based on the ones I've tried, they're nothing spectacular. In fact, most of the ones I tried all kind of taste the same. I don't notice a huge difference from one recipe to the next. There's a bit too much reliance on the same combination of herbs and spices, as well as eggplant (there's LOTS of eggplant in this book). There also seems to be a heavy reliance on cheese substitutes. I don't mind the occasional vegan cheese here or there, but it's in almost every recipe. So not because I love Italian food and the vegan lifestyle, but it's my favorite cookbook. I'll probably keep using it off and on definitely not going to be one of my go-to cookbooks.
