REVIEW OF BASIC CHESS OPENINGS

- ExcellentThis review requires that I write ten more words. Word, word, word, word, word, word, word, word, word, word.
- This was the first mature read aloud book our family read together when my boys were in kindergarten and second grade. None of us could put it down! I would sneak down after putting them to bed to read ahead. We learned alot about Ellis Island, WW1, and what families and children can go through and survive. Fast paced and exciting.
