REVIEW OF DEUTZ 6206 ERSATZTEILLISTE

- Eragon is one of those rare gems that someone gave to me for Christmas a few years back. I fell in love with the characters and the world that Christopher Paolini created (at the age of 15!) and have since recommended it to others. The book begins with a sequence of events that leads back to the main character, the boy Eragon, and the possible resurrection of a group of blessed individuals known as the Dragon Riders. Along the path that the story lays down, Eragon is forced to examine himself and the narrow view he has of the world and how he has just become perhaps the most important person in that world. Without giving too much away, if you like Dragons, medieval settings, wonderfully engaging characters, and the promise of more to come from the other 3 books in the series then Eragon and the Inheritance Cycle are for you.

- From reading the bestseller list on Amazon, one can come up with a number of conclusions: Everyone is fat, nobody knows anything about politics, and they wouldn't know a good book if it hit them in the face.
