REVIEW OF IESNA LIGHTING

HANDBOOK 9TH EDITION

- I think it is cool that Mr. Popper's Penguins was written so long ago and yet it is still funny for kids of today. I think the characters in this book are very well developed and the problems and solutions that come from the penguins keep the book moving exceptionally well. I would recommend this book for almost anyone who enjoys a warm story of a simple man's dream come true!

- "What these penguins like to do the most," said Mr. Popper, "is to drill like an army." A terrific part of this book is when the penguins first learn to perform. This book was tops because it becomes a very enjoyable experience to read. I recommend this book because it can make you laugh out loud, and is well suited for people of all ages. The penguins get into hilarious scenarios where they do something bad and messes everything up. This book was surely a page-turner. It was very entertaining with its style of humor, and the whole idea of penguins. The plot may seem out of whack sometimes, but the penguins living conditions are explained. At first the two penguins have to live in a refrigerator, but once there is ten of them a freezing system is installed in the basement for the penguins. Anybody can enjoy reading this book. It never seems to get boring, and it always keeps you on the edge.
