REVIEW OF INTERMEDIATE ACCOUNTING 15TH EDITION

SOLUTION

- I used to read this to my daughter when she was small and we lost our copy -it was lovely to replace this copy !
- This book is a classic favorite, especially for girls from the age of about 11-14 (depending of the reading level of the girl). Its made all the better for this age set because there are sequels- "Little Men" and "Jo's Boys" which continue the saga of the March sisters. The lives of these girls is related in an exciting way- sometimes gently moralizing (19th century middle class Protestant Christian values), sometimes sad, sometimes innocently romantic. The book is a good gift for any young girl who likes historical fiction, and has always been a treasured hand-me down in our family.
